Business Cycle Analysis by Means of Economic Surveys, Part II

Papers presented at the 20th CIRET Conference Proceedings, Budapest 1991

Edited by
KARL HEINRICH OPPENLÄNDER
IFO Institute for Economic Research, Munich
GÜNTER POSER
University of Darmstadt

Avebury
Aldershot · Brookfield USA · Hong Kong · Singapore · Sydney
3. Consumer Surveys
   Chairperson: Y. RORATO-CRUSIUS
   T.A. DURKIN / W.C. DUNKELBERG
   Credit Quality and the Outlook for Consumer Spending:
   Survey vs. Macro Evidence 209
   F.-J. KLEIN
   Explanatory Power of the EC Consumer Survey 243
   I. EKES
   The Experience of the Sample Survey Done on Consumption
   Structure of Population in Hungary 269

4. Impact of Inflation on Business Behaviour
   Chairperson: I. SZALKAI
   A.J. BUCK / W.C. DUNKELBERG
   The Impact of the Business Cycle on Credit Availability 283
   P.A. KLEIN / G.H. MOORE
   Monitoring Economic Activity in Newly Privatized Economies:
   Statistical Targets for Eastern Europe 313

5. Presentation of New Survey Activities (Part A)
   Chairperson: H. WURGLER
   D.P. HANDLER / T. MOHOROVIC
   An Overview of Dun & Bradstreet International Survey
   Methodologies and Results 335
   G. CETTE / C. GODIN
   Production Capacity Constraints and Equipment Operating Time:
   Behaviour of Industrial Firms 353
   H. MÜRTTER
   The Business Expectations Survey in Saudi Arabia -
   Objectives, Scope and Results 377

6. Presentation of New Survey Activities (Part B)
   Chairperson: W.C. DUNKELBERG 395
   K. BAN / C. MORIGUCHI
   National and Regional Business Cycles in Japan:
   A Case Study on the Osaka Economy 397
   E. GNAN / H. GLÜCK
   Obstacles Discouraging Austrian Enterprises from Capital Market Financing 421
   C.W. NAM / G. NERB / H.G. RUSS
   Measurement of Regional Competitiveness in Europe
   by Survey: Application of Survey Techniques in a New Field 443