The Explanatory Power of Business Cycle Surveys

Papers presented at the 21st Ciret Conference Proceedings, Stellenbosch, 1993

Edited by
KARL HEINRICH OPPENLÄNDER
IFO Institute for Economic Research
Munich

GÜNTER POSER
University of Darmstadt
Darmstadt

Avebury
Aldershot · Brookfield USA · Hong Kong · Singapore · Sydney
2B Forecasts Based on Survey Data (Part I)
Chairperson: Kit B. Chow 159

H. BAKIR
The Combination of Forecasts with an Application to the Major Macroeconomic Series of Turkey 161

H. BOSHOFF
Political Forecasting Using Opinion Surveys as an Aid to Business Cycle Forecasting 189

G. H. MOORE / P. A. KLEIN / L. HIRIS
The Role of Surveys in Developing Promptly Available Indexes for Forecasting 217

2C Innovation Surveys
Chairperson: Marcella Corsi 241

H. KÖNIG / F. LAISNEY / M. LECHNER / W. Pohlmeier

L. SCHOLZ / P. KAMINSKI
International Comparison of Innovation Survey Data: Methodological Problems and Empirical Results 263

3A Forecasts Based on Survey Data (Part II)
Chairperson: John P. Cullity 281

S. C. WOLTER
The Use of Survey Results in Respect to Autoregressive Expectation Formation 283

W. GERSTENBERGER / F. J. KLEIN
Accuracy of Capital Expenditure Plans of European Industry and Possibilities to Improve the Forecasting Performance 307

K. SCHÖLER
Leading Indicators for West German Industries 345

3B Investment Surveys
Chairperson: Jean Jacques Vanhaelen 371

I. J. PYYTHIÄ
Investment Plans, Innovations and Credit Market Deregulation. Empirical Results with the Finnish Data 373

3C Consumer Survey
Chairperson: Gernot Nerb 391

E. A. BOEHM / J. S. McDONNELL
Consumer Sentiment Variables as Leading Indicators of Changes in Consumer Spending in Australia 393

U. HEILEMANN / M. WENKE
Complementing the Consumption Function - Attitudinal Variables in the RWI-Business-Cycle Model 417
4A Tendency Surveys and Econometric Models (Part I)
Chairperson: Eon Smit

R. ETTER
Inventory Behaviour of Firms at Different Levels of Aggregation

W. FRANZ / G. HEIDBRINK
The Importance of Business Survey Data as Rationing Schemes: An Econometric Investigation for Germany

D. WILLSON / S. CHOWDHURY
Alternative "Optimizing" Models of Expectation Formation

4B Business Cycle Surveys about Economies in Transition (Part I)
Chairperson: Henkie Boshoff

S. P. AUKUTSIONEK / E. V. BELYANOVA
Surveys of Russian Industrial Enterprises and Commercial Banks: Application for Research into Transition to the Market

I. SUJAN
Business Surveys in Czechoslovakia and their Use in Official Statistics

4C Indicators of Competitiveness and Inflation
Chairperson: Wolfgang Gerstenberger

A. GONZALES ROMERO / D. ARANDA MARTIN
Interindustrial Analysis of Profites with Business Survey Data

5A Regional Tests / National Accounts
Chairperson: Giovanni De Cindio

S. B. ALGERA / R. J. A. JANNSSEN
Relationship between Business Cycle Surveys and National Accounts - Theory and Practice

N. BLAKE
The Regional Dimension of the Boom and Slump in the UK: A Survey Based Analysis

5B Tendency Surveys and Econometric Models (Part II)
Chairperson: Dominique Ladiray

G. ARMINGER
Dynamic Analysis of Non-Metric Individual Level Business Test Data

K. B. CHOW / CH. H. ONG
Incorporating Business Expectations Data in Econometric Models: Singapore’s Experience

5C Business Cycle Surveys about Economies in Transition (Part II)
Chairperson: Frank Schönborn

M. KOKOCINSKA / W. PRZYBYLSKA-KAPUSCINSKA
Accuracy of Short-Term Economic Forecast in the Light of Different Indicators Estimated by Means of Business Survey Method
Plenary Session
Measurement without Theory
Chairperson: Günter Poser 679

G. H. MOORE / J. P. CULLITY
The Historical Record of Leading Indicators -
An Answer to "Measurement Without Theory" 681

K. H. OPPENLÄNDER
Narrowing the Induction Gap:
Measurement without Theory? 703